Dear Sirs,

Please accept this letter as our request for the City of Coffeyville to give the Coffeyville Municipal Band a contract for the 2013 concert season. I request the contract to include the following:

A Memorial Day concert, to be played on May 27, 2013. Eight other concerts which will take place on Friday nights starting May 31st and concluding on August 2nd. These concerts will be played in Coffeyville at the Coffeyville Regional Medical Center's annual auxiliary ice cream social, the Brown Mansion, and the Plaza. Additionally we will play at the Rodeo parade.

I have accepted the position as band manager and Bob Roesky, a member of the Band Board, and I will sign the contract.

I wish to thank the City of Coffeyville for its tremendous support of the band through its first 117 years. With the city's help, I will see to continued success for the band this year and well into the 21st century.

Musically Yours,

Tony Frazier
