

Nixle Registration and Sign-up Step-by-Step

We have received numerous calls and emails asking how to sign up for Nixle. Individuals must sign up themselves, the Police Department does not have the ability to sign people up.

Go to www.nixle.com on your web browser

Click on the “Register Now. It’s free and easy” button

The screenshot shows the Nixle website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the Nixle logo and a globe. Below the logo, there is a registration form with fields for "Username or email" and "Password", and a "Citizen Login" button. A "Remember me" checkbox is also present. Below the registration form, the main heading reads "America's Community Information Service" and "Nixle is a free service that allows you to receive trusted, up-to-the-minute neighborhood information." A large image of a diverse group of people is shown, with a "Winner" badge for the "2009 Innovation Awards" from the "Law Enforcement Product News" and "OFFICER.com". Below the image is a prominent orange button that says "Register Now. It's free and easy!" with a "Register" link. To the right of the image, there are three bullet points describing the service: "the information you want", "for the locations you want", and "with the delivery you want". Below these points is a section titled "This Week's Featured Locations" with a dropdown menu to "Select a City or Agency". At the bottom of the page, there are three columns of links: "Learn More" (agencies & organizations, consumers, nixle blog), "What We Do" (community information service, organizational text messaging, WireWords), and "Navigate" (enter your city or town name! with a "GO!" button). The footer contains various logos including Mlotc, The United States Conference of Mayors Business Council, VeriSign, Member of American Hospital, CST, NEMA, IEEPNET, and Nixle.com. The browser address bar shows "http://local.nixle.com/register/".
